Paris Lady Wins Premiums.

Miss Belle Ogden, of this city, carried off number of first premiums at the Georgetown fair on her beautiful embroidery and crochet work.

Fall Fashions

are here in hats from Stetson, Knox, Rexford. Too late for straws, buy a soft felt hat. We have a hat for every face.

J. W. DAVIS & CO.

Repairing Street.

The Bitumen Company, of Indianapolis, have a force of hands here repairing Main street, which will be in perfect condition for the travel next week.

The Kind that Will Keep.

Pickling vinegar and Ferndell spices will keep your pickles.
C. P. COOK & CO.

Oiling Streets.

The city is putting the second coat of oil on Main street from Tenth to Twentieth street, and from that point to the Fair Grounds the county will oil.

Auction.

Former Drudge Now a Pleasure.

The Ideal Churn made by the Paris Novelty Manufacturing Co. converts the worst drudge of the farmer's wife into a pleasure. A small child can use it successfully.

Reception Postponed.

The reception for the teachers and trustees of the county, planned by the School Improvement League, has been postponed on account of preparations for the fair dinner.

For Evening Dress.

All young men going away to college need a new dress suit, Tuxedo, etc. We have just what you want at moderate prices. Come in and let us pack your suit case before you leave.
321 MITCHELL & BLAKEMORE.

Receives Broken Ankle.

Mrs. Thomas Dillon, of Little Rock, this county was thrown from her buggy Tuesday morning and painfully injured. She was picked up in an unconscious condition, but after examination her injuries were found to be a broken ankle and a deep gash in her forehead. Her horse became frightened at an automobile.

Clothes With Class.

Our new fall suits for well dressed gentlemen certainly have some classes to them. Up to the minute in style, quality the best, and prices to suit all pocket books.
321 MITCHELL & BLAKEMORE.

Interurban Making Ready.

Mr. Clay Sutherland, the local agent of the Blue Grass Traction Company, informs us that his company has a large force of hands at work on the tracks from Fifth street to the Fair Ground, making ready for the crowds that will attend the Bourbon Fair next week. The service on the interurban will be all that can be expected, the long waits in going and coming from the grounds will be things of the past.

Beautiful Neckwear.

We show a beautiful line of neckwear in stripes, plain colors and floral effects for autumn wear. Fifty cents upwards. See display in window.
J. W. DAVIS & CO.

Delegates to Grand Lodge.

The following delegates were selected at the last meeting of Bourbon Lodge, No. 23, I. O. O. F., to attend the grand lodge meeting at Mayfield on October:

E. B. January, Hon. J. T. Hinton, F. B. Wright, C. Arnsperger, P. J. McCord, J. R. Stivers, J. H. Rye, W. S. Kiser, M. B. Lovell and Charles Clendenin.

For Tobacco Barns.

We have the best lumber for tobacco barns. Give us a call.
3131 BOURBON LUMBER CO.

Ideal Churns.

The Paris Novelty Manufacturing Co. is now prepared to deliver the ideal churn to the farmers of Bourbon county and to demonstrate that it is superior to any churn made. Butter three to five minutes.

It makes twenty per cent. more butter and better quality than any churn on the market. Don't close any contract for churn until you have seen the ideal. The price is $5.50 for farmer's size. It is made in Paris and if repairs are needed you can get them at home at a nominal cost.

To Hit it Right

In September, sometimes puzzles our weather prophets. Hit it right now by buying a light weight overcoat. Just the thing for these cool evenings.
J. W. DAVIS & CO.

Miss Anna C. Thornton will insure your property against fire and wind. Your tobacco insurance solicited. Office, Court House, both phones.
